have additional voting member representatives. General Members and Organization Members shall designate, in advance, those individuals who will be their voting member representatives. Such voting member representatives shall be entitled to vote on behalf of General Members and Organization Members at all meetings of members and on any other matters requiring a vote of members. Each voting member representative shall be entitled to one vote.

3.4 RIGHTS

If approved by the Board, the applicant shall become a member and shall have all of the rights of, and be subject to all the obligations of, membership and shall be notified accordingly.

3.5 RESIGNATIONS

Any member wishing to resign, may do so at any time upon giving thirty (30) days' notice in writing to the President of intention to resign, and upon discharging his/her or its liabilities to the Chamber. No refunds of dues will be issued for resignations during the year.

3.6 TERMINATION

The membership of any member may be terminated by a Special Resolution of the Board provided that:

- a) The Board shall find that, in its opinion, the member has willfully violated the by-laws or has conducted his/her/itself dishonestly or has acted in a manner as to bring discredit to the Chamber; and,
- b) Such member shall have had an opportunity, upon notice of thirty (30) days from the Board, to show cause why such membership should not be terminated.

Upon such termination, any dues paid for the current year shall be refunded.

3.7 ASSESSMENT

Should the funds of the Chamber at any time be insufficient for the purpose of providing the Chamber with the total revenue necessary for effective fulfillment of its program, an assessment may be imposed upon the members sufficient to cover the amount of the deficiency provided that:

- a) such course of action is approved by a majority vote of the Board and by;
- b) a majority vote of the members present at an Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting of the Chamber;
- c) the notice calling such meeting shall state the nature and amount of the proposed assessment.

3.8 ASSESSMENTS DUE

All assessments levied shall be due and payable within thirty (30) days of the date the notice of assessment is rendered to the membership.

4. MEMBERSHIP DUES

4.1 DUES

Membership dues shall be paid annually on an anniversary system based on the original month of joining or as otherwise designated by the Board. The dues will be established by the Board. The Treasurer shall bring forward an annual recommendation on dues before the Annual General Meeting. In the absence of a revision by the Board, the dues scale prevailing in the preceding year shall be extended, without amendment, into each next succeeding year until such revision has occurred.

4.2 TERMINATION FOR FAILURE TO PAY DUES

Should any member fail or refuse to pay annual dues or an assessment within a period of ninety (90) days after the same are due and payable, the membership of the member shall then stand suspended and may be terminated by the Board. Nevertheless, the Board, in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems proper, may restore such suspended member to good standing, subject to the provision of the by-laws.
